SM'ALGYAX

“It is a beautiful thing to hear your own language, especially if it is YOU speaking it”

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

Language is what makes us different. Language is what makes us who we are.
Our language, Sm'algyax is endangered, let's learn together and save our language!

Learn beginning and conversational Sm'algyax with others. The class will provide written materials, practice and speaking in Sm'algyax. Learning how to introduce yourself, conversation, counting, colors, clothing, birds & animals and much more. The learning of the vocabulary, pronunciation and putting the words in the right order are important class components. WE can save our language, even by beginning with this class, commit your time for a fun, challenging and rewarding learning experience.
